

ARE BISEXUALS CONFUSED?

Bisexuality is not about being equally attracted to men and women.

Bisexuality is not about denying we're really gay or straight.

Bisexuality is not irrelevant, or imaginary, or a threat.

Bisexuality is not about being fashionable or trendy.

Bisexuality is neither something new nor outdated.

Bisexuality is not about being greedy or fickle.

Bisexuality is not hard to explain:

- ♥ Some people are attracted to the same sex.
- ♥ Some people are attracted to the opposite sex.
- ♥ Some people find their attraction isn't limited that way.

Bisexuals aren't confused - people who insist that bisexuality is complicated are confused.
